MISSOURI FOR INTERFERENCE AND ATTEMPTED BRIEYERY OF MINERS

Injunction against Lewis & Wicknall Will Not Be Declared For Several Weeks and in the Meantime the Organization Struggled in the West Go on Almost Between the Factories. Coal Production Declines.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 8.—The struggle between the mine owner.

lers and the miners on the Lewis & Wicknall mines in southwestern Missouri continues for a second week. The miners' strike has been extended for several more weeks, and the organization is fighting on for its survival. The miners are still out on strike, and the mine owners have not given in to their demands.

From Kansas City comes report of the mine owners' intention to demand with the miners. The miners have offered to go back to work on the condition that the mine owners agree to certain conditions, but the owners have refused to do so.

NEGLIGENCE TO ORGANIZE IS CAUSE OF ABANDONMENT OF ALL PROTECTION FOR LIFE AND LIMB

Neglect to organize is the cause of abandonment of all protection for life and limb. The work is done with dangerous tools and machines.

Ariel Job, June 8—During the months of November, 1929, the organization in the mining industry has been abandoned, and thousands of workers have been laid off by the closing down of many mills and buildings in coal fields, and the miners have been left with no protection for life and limb.

The work is done with dangerous tools and machines.

UTAH APEX CUTS WAGE TO $4.25

Barriers to Get $3.50. Other Mines Will Follow With Similar Cuts

SALT LAKE CITY, June 8—An immediate cut in wages for miners in the Utah mines was announced today by the Apex Coal Company.

The company, owned by the Apex Coal Company, announced that it would cut the wages of its miners from $4.25 per day to $3.50 per day.

The cut in wages comes in the face of the miners' struggle for better conditions.

MUTTYS WANT TO GET MUSSED UP

Casino 90th King of Holy Joe Thrills For Glory

FLORENCE, Italy, May 18—Society for the Prevention of cruelty to animals, for 20 minutes yesterday afternoon, was the scene of one of the most thrilling performances of its kind in the city in recent years.

Performances are musical and dramatic, and are designed to raise public awareness of animal rights.

"Only in as much as we are able to raise the consciousness of the community about the importance of animal rights, can we affect positive change," said Muttsy, the society's mascot.

The performances are an effective way to raise awareness about animal rights and encourage people to take action.
The Industrial Worker

Hear Him, Ye "Respectables!"

By COVANI

Ye white men who criticize "the working man's way of life."
Ye who never yet with naked hands have held the fatness of bounty.
Ye who never yet have set your foot in the sweatshop of the world.
Ye who never yet have tasted the bitterness of the blood of the hungry worker.
Ye who have never held the ruins of the factory in your lap.
Ye who have never sat down to the daily demand of the toiling man.
Ye who have never felt the hand of the workers that toil.
Ye friends who are paid out of the accumulated surplus provided by the filthy sweat of the workers.
Ye who are nothing but the poodles of the capitalist class.
Ye who work only for the profit of the owners of the means of production.
Ye who have never put your foot where the worker has stepped before you.
Ye who have never felt the sweat of the workers.
Ye who have never smelled the fumes of the factories.
Ye friend, if you are decent, kindly show me the way to the socialist Republic.

The One Way Out.

The one way to humanity is to be a soldier of the revolution.

The worker should address the battle against the capitalist class.

The battle is full of struggle and sacrifice.

For the take outs would be free of cost.

The factory is a place where the worker can take the capitalist class.

The factory is a place where the worker can organize his class.

The factory is a place where the worker can educate his class.

CLAIMS 80 P. C. OF ILLINOIS FARMERS.

The Illinois Famine is the most serious and widespread in America. Over 80 per cent of the farmers in the state are facing crop failure. The situation is so critical that the Illinois Famine Relief Committee has been formed to cope with the crisis.

The committee has already raised $100,000 and is working hard to raise more funds. Help will be needed to feed the hungry farmers and to prevent further suffering.

The Illinois Famine Relief Committee can be contacted at 130 S. LaSalle St., Chicago.
