WALSENBURG, Colo., Oct. 28.—The Northern delegation of I. W. W. miners from the Denver strike field that have appeared in Walsenburg, it was announced this morning that they have not been received here in any technicality. As a whole the miners are carrying nearly 800 women, were followed through the streets of Waldenburg, and tho large banner that the "One Union, One Label" peace was maintained in the mine, was witnessed by the I. W. W. four guards that the law never had been violated and proved of it was the arrest of 16 men against the conviction of the town. The law committed by the C. F. E. I. in trying to twist forcibly striking miners without due process of the law, arrested to the sheriff of Byrom R. Kitts on 3 to trumped up charges in order to raise the bail of this Fellow Worker in an untruthful way. Young girl Wobbly leader: Mina Siblick arrested on the step of the Court house in complete disregard of any national guard; intimidation of all citizens by authority to break the solidarity of the workers who are defending this battle to the final victory.

Walsenburg, Colo., November 4—By Special Wire—CompanyA conference was called at the State House. The picketing meeting was held at Denver Friday. The Northern delegation of I. W. W. miners from the Boulder limit field closed down mine for a mammoth procession met at the city limits by the Walsen-Fremont county, followed through the streets of Waldenburg, and the men and women. The new march is built on a rank and file basis. Its purpose: to drive the workers back to the work, to the company, to the company.

THE INDUSTRIAL WORKER

THEIR VICTORY IS YOUR VICTORY

On the streets of the gold and coal of Colorado—spread by the blood of the working men—lies the most eloquent cast of all. Through the long years that the workers have been hacking their way through the world, they have maintained their standard of living and have accomplished a great deal. The miners have come out at Oak Creek and the coal miners are working through the state. They are fighting for the right to live and for the right to work. Their victory is your victory, ladies and gentlemen, and you must help them to gain it.

WALSHBURG, Colo., October 27.—(By wire)—Five hundred men were employed at the mines in the Southern Redstone district. The miners have been working for the last few days.

PUEBLO, Colo., October 27.—The Rocky Mountain Fuel Company, operating in the southern part of the state, notified all the miners that they would have to accept the new conditions if the strikers will grant them a meeting. The Northern strikers, however, will not accept the new conditions and will continue to work on the strike.

PUEBLO, Colorado, October 29.—The Rocky Mountain Fuel Company announced that they had accepted the new conditions and would continue to work.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN COLORADO MINES-STRIKE

The Industrial Worker

The latest developments in the Colorado coal mines are as follows:

1. The miners have been working for the last few days.
2. The Rocky Mountain Fuel Company has accepted the new conditions and will continue to work.
3. The Northern strikers will continue to work on the strike.

Workers Subscription Campaign

With the industrial workers in the state of Colorado, the demand is swelling for new workers to subscribe to the subscription fund. The fund is being used to help the miners and their families in times of need. The subscription campaign is open to all workers, and those who wish to subscribe should contact their local union or the Industrial Worker office.

AGRICULTURAL WORKERS CONVENTION

By James Henry

The agricultural workers convention is being held in the city of Denver. The convention is being held to discuss the problems of agricultural workers and to promote the interests of the workers. The convention is open to all workers in the agricultural sector, and those who wish to attend should contact their local union or the convention office.

L. W. W. PRESIDENT

The L. W. W. President is in charge of the subscription campaign. The President is responsible for ensuring that the subscription fund is used to help the miners and their families in times of need. The President is also responsible for ensuring that the subscription campaign is open to all workers, and that those who wish to subscribe are able to do so.
