PICKET LINES GOING STRONG IN STRIKE OF L.W.W. EXTRA GAN G MEN AGAINST WAGE CUT

HELP THE EXTRA GANG MEN WIN

A Bulletin issued by General Headquarters of the L.W.W. gives the following statement of the present situation of the struggle:

"The company is making every effort to settle the strike and has agreed to a wage increase of 8% for both journeymen and apprentices. This agreement has been accepted by the workers and they are now returning to work."

The statement goes on to say that the workers are satisfied with the offer and that they will return to work as soon as possible.

Borah Fears Nazi U.S. Propaganda

TACOMA, Wash. — President William E. Borah, former Senator from Idaho, has been quoted as saying that the United States is in danger of being drawn into a war with Germany due to the spread of Nazi propaganda. Borah, a strong opponent of American involvement in World War I, has been critical of President Roosevelt's policies, particularly the Lend-Lease program.

EX-RADICALS RE-CONSIDER RANK AND FILE AS MUD SLINGING IN CIO-RAVOLY RIVALS WORSE

General Electric Stewards Organize Vigilance Legion

TACOMA, Wash. — General Electric workers have formed a new organization to combat the spread of communist influence in the company. The Vigilance Legion, as the group has been named, will conduct investigations into the backgrounds of employees and will take action against any suspected of being subversive.

French Workers Are God-Parents To Spanish Kids

French workers in this area have assumed the role of god-parents to Spanish children, according to a report. The workers have been providing financial assistance and medical care to the children, who are living in poverty due to the Spanish Civil War.

Bitter Stockholders-Teamster Fight

OREGON WOODS INVOLVED

"(That's all folks)" was the sign-off for the last time. The newsreel was over and the movie theater went back to black. But the last words weren't over. The dreams and aspirations of the workers involved in the struggle for a fair wage were just beginning.
The A. F. of L.

Diane A. F. of L. is looking toward the make up of the union, among the others, the effect of the hiring the A. F. of L. to another. And when she tells us her story of growth, she is not just talking about the union, she is talking about the growth of the workers.

In 1913, the A. F. of L. Labor Department came into existence. It was founded on the principle of organizing strong, independent unions that would be able to deal with the A. F. of L. as an equal partner. The Department's work is to provide a framework for the creation and development of these independent unions, and to hold them to a high standard of conduct.

The Department has been very successful in its efforts. It has helped to organize many new unions, and has provided a voice for the workers in the face of management.

And so, the A. F. of L. Labor Department is a vital part of the union, and it will continue to play a key role in the growth of the workers.
LOOKING THE WORLD OVER

INFLATIONARY HIPS OF CONCERN TO LABOR

By JOHN LIND

A worker engaged on a federal defense plant has a chance to earn $2,000 a month. Another worker, employed on a defense plant cooperative, has a chance to earn $5,000 a month. A third worker, employed on a defense plant welfare organization, has a chance to earn $10,000 a month. The result is inflationary hips of concern to labor.

In the British Trades Union Congress, 3 million workers will be represented, as will be 7 million workers in France. In Germany, 4 million workers will be represented. In Russia, 2 million workers will be represented. In Japan, 1 million workers will be represented. These are the figures for the number of workers represented in the various countries.

In the United States, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 5 million workers represented in the various unions.

In Canada, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 2 million workers represented in the various unions.

In Mexico, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 1 million workers represented in the various unions.

In Argentina, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Brazil, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Australia, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In New Zealand, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In South Africa, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In India, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In China, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Japan, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Russia, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In France, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Germany, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Britain, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In the United States, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Canada, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Mexico, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Argentina, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Brazil, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Australia, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In New Zealand, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In South Africa, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In India, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In China, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Japan, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Russia, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In France, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Germany, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.

In Britain, the number of workers represented is not known. However, it is estimated that there are at least 500,000 workers represented in the various unions.
THERE'S OPPORTUNITY AT FORD'S FOR THOSE WHO WANT TO BUILD A REAL WORKERS ORGANIZATION

The steel section is not many unlamentable permanently wooded places, but the CIW, but there’s a good charge for L.W.

By A Ford Employee

The newly formed Liberty Club of Ford Motor Co. is already bringing in some interesting developments at Ford. The club was formed by a group of men who have been active in the company’s labor movement for many years.

The club’s first meeting was held on November 1, and it was attended by about 500 members. The meeting was held at the Ford plant in Dearborn, and it was opened by President William Clay Ford.

The club’s objectives are to promote peace and understanding between workers and management, to encourage member participation in company affairs, and to foster a sense of community among Ford employees.

The club’s executive committee consists of: President, William Clay Ford; Vice-President, George W. Meany; Secretary, John L. Lewis; and Treasurer, John J. Mitchell.

The club’s constitution and by-laws are still under development, but they will be announced in the near future.

The club’s first program was a series of lectures on labor relations, presented by various experts in the field.

In addition to the lectures, the club will also sponsor social events and other programs designed to bring workers together and to promote a greater understanding of each other.

The club is open to all Ford employees, regardless of the department or division in which they work.

The club will hold its next meeting on December 1, at 8:00 p.m., in the Ford plant auditorium.

The meeting will be open to all employees, and the program will be announced in the near future.

In brief

WASHINGTON—The AFL has been unable to gain agreement on labor contract terms in 1947, but it is working toward an agreement in 1948.

The AFL has met with local union leaders in the various industries and has been able to reach agreement on some issues.

However, the company has refused to negotiate on certain issues, such as the length of the workday and the rate of pay.

The AFL has said that it will continue to negotiate on these issues, and it will work toward an agreement in 1948.

The AFL has also been working on a number of other issues, such as the provision of health and welfare benefits and the establishment of a pension plan.

The AFL has been working closely with the local union leaders in the various industries, and it has been able to reach agreement on a number of issues.

The AFL has said that it will continue to work with the local union leaders in the various industries, and it will work toward an agreement in 1948.

The AFL has also been working on a number of other issues, such as the provision of health and welfare benefits and the establishment of a pension plan.

The AFL has been working closely with the local union leaders in the various industries, and it has been able to reach agreement on a number of issues.

The AFL has said that it will continue to work with the local union leaders in the various industries, and it will work toward an agreement in 1948.